HOME of the MONTH

This month we are pleased to feature Bob Murphy's home on Polaris Drive. It's panoramic views and contiguous beach are unique to Dover Shores. Truly an architectural masterpiece.

Bob had been dreaming about building this home for quite some time. He named the home Summer Camp. "I had always imagined a home where, among it, many features, would somewhat look and feel like a rustic family summer lodge nestled by a beach. It would bristle with outdoor watersports activity, much like a summer camp. It would be a place where our large extended family would love to come and hang out with their family. They could stay over as there would be ample room and they would always be welcome."

One of the many unique features is in the living room, which is convertible to a theater room and has a giant screen which drops out of the ceiling. It is also convertible to the outside covered sun deck by opening large sliding glass bay windows.

The architecture and design take full advantage of the panoramic views of the back bay with every room in the house having a view of the water. The large custom windows in each exposure were treated with "nearly clear window film" in order to block UV rays, reduce glare, and minimize heat by Greg Earl and The Tint Pros. Furnishings were provided by Mesa upholstery.
